

2025 – 2026 Calendar Overview

Summer 2025

Greetings MND Students and Families,

I am excited to share the full 2025–2026 MND calendar with you!

As a reminder, each MND student and staff member will receive a printed block schedule planner. This planner includes the daily rotation, special schedule indicators, key school events, club meeting days, and more.

Our calendar is intentionally structured to preserve academic time by concentrating instructional minutes on A and B Days. Most school days follow an A or B Day rotation, while C Days typically include both academic classes and supplemental experiences—such as Mass, pep rallies, assemblies, and community-building activities. We've found that minimizing unplanned and uneven interruptions supports student focus and maintains academic momentum. Our students and faculty thrive in this model.

As in previous years, a few school days will feature late arrivals or early dismissals to allow for faculty Professional Learning Community (PLC) meetings or to accommodate school-wide events. Even on late arrival days, our building will open at the usual time so families can maintain consistent routines if needed.

Attached, you'll find the At-a-Glance Calendar Overview, which highlights the overall structure of the year, including holidays and major events. Each Wednesday, MND will continue to send a weekly email newsletter with reminders about any special schedules or upcoming activities. In the coming weeks, the MND Central BAND calendar will also be fully updated with all schedules and events for the year—making it easy for you to sync important dates directly to your phone calendar.

Our administrative team has worked diligently to finalize this schedule early so families can plan ahead. We're looking forward to a successful, faith-filled year together!

Warm regards,

Karen Day, Principal
