

2024 – 2025 Calendar Overview

Summer 2024

Greetings MND Students and Families,

I am excited to present the full 2024 – 2025 calendar. As a reminder, each MND student will receive a printed MND block schedule planner on her first day of school which contains the daily rotation, special schedule indicators, special school events for students, club meetings, etc.

MND's calendar is structured to preserve academic time by concentrating instructional minutes on A and B days. Most of our school days are labelled as an A or B Day. MND also has C days which almost always have classes in addition to supplemental and faith/co-curricular/community-building activities such as mass, pep rallies, special assemblies, etc. MND has found that when we minimize unpredicted and unbalanced interruptions to classes, we preserve academic routines and student focus. MND students and faculty are extremely successful in this model. As in years past, many (but not all) C days have a late arrival time or early dismissal so that our faculty can attend Professional Learning Community (PLC) meetings. Please remember that our building will be open at the regular time so that students can plan to arrive at their regular arrival time if that is better for families.

The attached At-a-Glance Calendar Overview provides the big picture for our year as well as identifies days off, some special events. Each week, MND will send an email newsletter (on Wednesdays) which will outline the week ahead for any special schedules and/or plans. Additionally, in the coming weeks, the events calendar on MND Central BAND will be populated with all MND schedules and events for the entire year. It will then be very easy to add events to your phone calendar from MND Central.

A few clarifications about our calendar:

- There are two C-B Days (March 5 and April 17) that do not have the blue shading for late arrival. This is correct due to the programming needs on those days.
- Days that are marked only "C" will have some special programming (testing, Roo-ha spirit day, etc.) and that will be more clear as we populate the MND Central BAND calendar.

The administrative team has worked hard to solidify our schedule for the upcoming school year so that families are aware. We are looking forward to a great year together!

Karen Day, Principal
