

2026 – 2027 Calendar Overview

Summer 2026

Greetings MND Students and Families,

I am excited to share the full 2026–2027 MND calendar with you! Attached is the At-a-Glance Calendar Overview, which highlights the overall structure of the school year, including holidays and special schedule days

Each Wednesday, MND will continue to send a weekly email newsletter with reminders about upcoming activities, important dates, and any special schedules. In August, every MND student and staff member will receive a printed block schedule planner that includes the daily rotation, special schedule indicators, key school events, club meeting days, and more.

Over the years, we have carefully studied the impact of the block schedule on student learning. Our schedule is designed to minimize unplanned disruptions, support academic focus, and maintain instructional momentum. This model has proven successful for both our students and faculty. We ask families to plan for their daughters to participate fully in the MND experience, including academic, spiritual, and community-building opportunities. Our calendar is intentionally structured to maximize instructional time by concentrating academic minutes on A and B Days. Most school days follow this rotation. C Days typically include academic classes along with supplemental experiences such as Mass, assemblies, pep rallies, and other community-building activities.

Some days throughout the year will feature late arrivals or early dismissals to accommodate faculty Professional Learning Community (PLC) meetings or school-wide events. On these days, the building will open at the regular time to help families maintain consistent morning routines. Special arrival and dismissal days are indicated on the calendar through shaded dates; please refer to the key at the bottom of each month for the key. In the coming weeks, the MND Central BAND calendar will be fully updated with specific schedules and events for the year, making it easy to sync important dates directly to your personal calendar.

Our administrative team has worked diligently to finalize this schedule early so families can plan ahead. We look forward to a successful, faith-filled year together.

Warm regards,

Karen Day, Principal
